Colebrook Members Attend 3 Interclubs!

Colebrook Kiwanians were busy this week attending three interclubs. Members traveled to Berlin, Canaan and Colebrook to accomplish this feat.

On Tuesday evening Lt. Governor Judy H., Treasurer Gaetane B, Steve B. and Beth S. traveled to Berlin. The meeting was held at Sinibaldi's Restaurant in Gorham.

Six early risers attended the Canaan Key Club meeting on Wednesday morning. Members John Fo., Beth S., Butch L, Denis G., MaryAnn G. and Key Club Advisor/Kiwanian Renee M. were all there bright and early. Key Club members discussed current projects and the upcoming New England Convention. Canaan Key Club has 30 members who are interested in attending!! Way to go Canaan Key Club!

Five Colebrook members attended the Colebrook Key Club meeting Wednesday evening. President Brad B, Steve B., Denis G., MaryAnn G. and Lindy F. attended the weekly Key Club meeting. Members have been holding themed meetings this month to celebrate National Creativity Month. This week members came in costume. The scrapbook project, Major Emphasis Project and Single Service projects were discussed. A cake was baked to welcome back Key Club Advisor/Kiwanian Lindy Falconer.

Welcome Back Angele!

Welcome back Angele. The members of Kiwanis have missed your cheerful smile and energy.

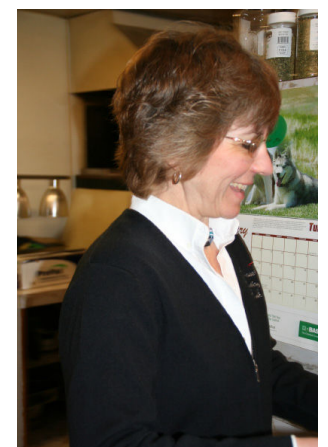

Dinner Auction

Sixteen members and guests enjoyed good food, good fun, good company and the first Dinner Auction of Colebrook Kiwanis .

To start the evening off, members enjoyed wine and cheese tasting . Percy Peaks Winery provided guests with three different types of wine. LaPerle's IGA provided seven types of cheeses to accompany the different types of wine.

Members brought in an interesting variety of foods that they prepared to be auctioned off. High bid of the evening went Jim L. for a wonderful dish of Stuffed Shells that Jim himself prepared.

We would like to thank our hosts, Clayton and Michele Hinds, for holding the Dinner Auction Fund Raiser at The Colebrook Country Club, the vintners of Percy Peaks Winery and LaPerle's IGA.
