George Whitney Addresses St. Johnsbury Club

Several members of Colebrook Kiwanis and Division 8 Key Club Lt. Governor Becca participated in an interclub to the St. Johnsbury Kiwanis weekly meeting. Members Roland C., John Fo., Renee M., and MaryAnn G. enjoyed a wonderful meal.

Also present at the meeting was New England District Key Club Administrator George Whitney and Lt. Governor Becca of Division 9 Key Club. George has been involved with Key Club for more than 30 years. He described some of the activities that Key Club participates in as well as several ongoing projects.

Lt. Governor Becca reported on her second Board of Directors meeting held the previous weekend. Discussed at the meeting was the upcoming DCON in Springfield, MA in 2011. The theme for this year's event is "Ned Swings Into Service". Convention packets were also discussed at the meeting.

CPR Training

Member Roland C. is coordinating with UCVH to provide CPR training for those members wishing to participate. Roland has a goal to have 100 people trained in this life saving technique.

Santa Comes to Town!

The stockings have been bought, the toys aren't far behind, Mr. & Mrs. Claus are coming and the elves will be there too!

Santa and Mrs. Claus are scheduled to make their appearance in the Colebrook Gym on Sunday, December 5th at 1:00 PM.

Santa Chair Judy reported that the Santa Comes to Town celebration is on schedule. Members attending the Fall Convention picked up supplies from the Christmas Tree Shoppe in North Conway.

Colebrook Kapers!

CCNH Christmas Party

The Coos County Nursing Hospital Christmas Party has been rescheduled to Tuesday, December 21st at 1:30 PM due to a scheduling conflict.

Community Christmas Tree
