Colebrook Wins the Herve Blais Award!!

For the second year in a row, the Kiwanis Club of Colebrook has won the Herve Blais Interclub Award!! Six Colebrook Kiwanians; President Brad B., Lt. Governor Judy H., Alma N., Denis G., MaryAnn G., and Interclub Chairman Sonja S. and her husband Charlie, attended the weekly meeting of the Berlin Kiwanis Club at Camp Sawyer. After a wonderful meal and much laughter, Past Lt. Governor Dayna S. gave a brief history about the award and the Kiwanian the award is named for.

Lt. Governor Judy awarded the much coveted Herve Blais Award to the Colebrook Kiwanis Club. The award is only eligible to Division 8 clubs and is given to the one with the most interclubs.

Lt. Governor Judy, Edma Blais and Interclub Chairman Sonja

Way to Go Colebrook Kiwanians!!

Local Kiwanians at the Dixville Half-Marathon

The Food Booth and it's band of hard working volunteers were out and about at the Annual Dixville Half-Marathon and Fun Walk on Saturday. A beautiful day for an awesome event, the Key Clubs out in force with one Kiwanian (Tonya L.) running in the relay race and our Lt. Governor in the Fun Walk.

The Food Booth did a brisk business to the music of a Blue Grass Band. Kiwanian Tonya L.'s team placed second in the relay. A perfect fall event for all.

Training a new grill cook, Brad?

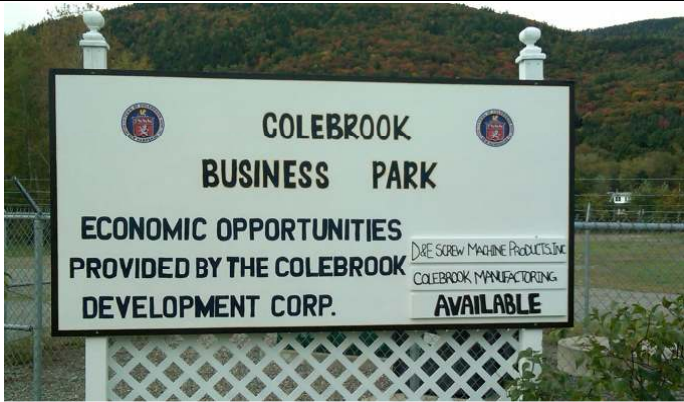

French Fries Anyone??

A meeting of the minds??

Colebrook Key Club

Colebrook Key Club helped create a new sign for the Colebrook Business Park. The sign was updated to help promote the Colebrook Business Park to visiting Canadian companies looking to locate in three North Country towns.

The Key Club also attended the visit with signs promoting the many qualities of our area.
