Colebrook Inducts New Member

New member, Andrew A., was inducted into the Kiwanis Club of Colebrook on September 7th. Even before his induction, Andrew had volunteered to work in the Food Booth during Moose Festival Weekend.

Andrew grew up in Minneapolis, MN. He attended the University of Wisconsin-Madison where he received his Bachelors and Masters Degrees. While in college, he was active in the Big Brother/Big Sister program, e-mentoring for individuals with disabilities, worked as a teaching assistant and did psychotherapy. Andrew graduated with a Masters in Social Work in 2009. He accepted a job at the Mental Health Center in July 2010. Andrew enjoys writing, the Internet and avoiding the influence of Stephen B.

Welcome to Kiwanis Andrew!!

2010 Installation of Officers

Lt. Governor Judy H. will be collecting ticket money for the 2010 Installation of Officers. The Installation Ceremony will be held at the Mountain View Grand on Sunday, October 3rd. Social Hour begins at 1:00 PM. The price per ticket is $40 per person which includes the meal and tax. Members wishing to attend should plan to have their ticket fee in to July by Tuesday, September 20th.

The Object Of Kiwanis International

To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards.

To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service and to build better communities.

To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and good will.

THE KIWANIS ETHICS CODE

IDEALS . . . Kiwanis International, dedicated to the promotion of higher social, business and professional standards and to the development, by precept and example, of a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship, recognizes the Golden Rule as a guide for everyday life.

APPLICATION . . . In the application of its principles it is my obligation . . .

To recognize God as the Supreme Ruler and to abide by his immutable laws.

To endeavor to perfect myself in my chosen occupation, and to use it to the best of my ability as an opportunity to serve others.

To conduct my business or profession on a high ethical plane, so that others emulating my example will help to raise the standards of the vocation in which I am engaged.

To maintain the fairness of competition, and help eradicate all forms of deception that violate the spirit of the law.

To exert my influence to provide equal opportunity for the well-being of mankind.

To promote harmony in everyday contacts, realizing that happiness is one of the major objectives of life, and that happiness depends more on the way we meet the events of life rather than on the events themselves.

To improve relations between employer and employee, recognizing that tolerance, intelligence, and justice are the common ground on which all disputes should be settled.

To exemplify good citizenship in appreciation of the fact that the nation depends upon the caliber of its individual citizens.

Correction

The Quilt Donation Ticket Sale was a Kiwanis Raffle, not a Key Club Raffle. This was done by Kiwanis to help send Key Club members to the International Convention and to Key Leader.
