Pittsburg—No report.

Builders Clubs: Canaan Builder's Club met last week. Their big project is that they will be crossing guards for the whole school. They have already made monthly schedules for the year. The officers are President Becca Marchesseault, VP Eli Smith, Secretary Rebecca Lineau, Treasurer Emily Pariseau, and Bulletin Editor Amanda Marquis (Mindy's sister).

No report from Errol.

K-Kids: Canaan Advisor Mrs. Smith is in the process of organizing.

Interclubs: Chair Sonja invited all to go to Berlin tonight (10/10) for their annual auction/raffle to close up Camp Sawyer for the season. A group will leave from Millsfield and the other will leave from Roland's store around 5 p.m. Wayne reminded everyone it is a pot luck so bring a dish.

Happy Dollars: Sandra for her anniversary; Beth for her new puppy; Sarah (3) for a nice ride to see the leaves, for John & Lindy for the beans from their garden, for John H proving he is full of hot air; John H (2) for his awesome ride in a hot air balloon ride, for his treating Nancy to a balloon ride the next day; Bob for having IPP Carolyn sitting with him at the table; Roland for new member Jim is smart enough to move away from Table 1; Gaetane for her great vacation in So. Dakota and no snow there; Jack because he is happy he has an extra dollar for all the happy people here this morning.

Fines: John J. , as House Committee Chair, was fined for putting the American flag on the wrong (right) side of the head table.

Club News: All charter paperwork for the new Builder's Club and K-Kids Club in Canaan has been completed and sent in to KI for approval. Dues are due as of Oct 1st—$45 for 1/2 year through March 30th; $90 for full year through Sept 30th. Three volunteers have come forward to co-chair the children's Halloween Party in conjunction with the Colebrook and Canaan Key Clubs—Sandra, JimS, and Lorraine Day (a potential new member from Pittsburg). A very big thank you to Sandra, Jim, and Lorraine otherwise the party was in jeopardy of being cancelled. when taking other club's property. He said that gavel is fair game but not personal property. out the door with them. You must also notify where they are. There was a discussion regard-recipient's name should be shared with club decided that we follow the procedure we have in the Spiritual Aims Committee. Clergy Recognition will be held sometime this winter—PE Judy noted that we did not have the program this past year due to the situation that occurred two years ago during the ceremony. The Washington DC Trip committee held their organizational meeting last week for the Spring 07 trip. President Wayne passed around a copy of the current Yankeewanian which is available on-line now.

Current Club Projects/Events: October 21 & 22—Grass Drags Food Booth. We will be serving breakfast on both days—our famous McKiwani (sausage patty, egg, cheese and muffin). YUMMM! Shifts will be from 7:30 am—11:30am and 11:30 am—3:30 pm. We need more volunteers. Sign up sheet will be passed again next week—Please see John Fal, Chair.

October 29—Kid's Halloween Party—Need volunteers to help with games and make cookies.

Upcoming Meetings: October 10th Interclub to Berlin—Annual Auction & Raffle at Camp Sawyer.

District Leadership Training— No. Conway, NH—November 17th—19th

Special Requests: Lindy is still looking for anyone interested in driving kids to Camp Sunshine Oct 14. Sandra is asking for volunteers to make chili for the chili cook-off for the Harvest Fair on 10/21 and to decorate the town with scarecrows.

John H. won the weekly drawing.
