Letter of Thanks

The following letter was received by President Vito about Beaver Brook Falls. A special thanks to all who work so hard to keep the area so beautiful!

Just a word of THANKS for the serendipity of discovering the falls and wayside last week. In our seven years of retirement we have lunched in 48 states (including upwards of 20 National Parks) and 8 provinces, but nowhere else can match the combination of what you have in Colebrook for picnickers. Thank you so much for enhancing the pleasure of our tent-camping visit to the Great North Woods.

John & Lindy Named Chairs

Colebrook Kiwanians John and Lindy Fal. have been named NE District Key Club Service Chairs. The couple have been members of the Colebrook Kiwanis for a combined total of 34 years. They are active in most club activities including Santa Comes to Town, Key Club and the Food Booth. Congratulations John and Lindy.

New England Convention

Several members of the Colebrook Kiwanis Club attended the Annual New England District Convention. The club won the following awards:

NE District Early Bird Award
NE District Family Special Interclub Award
Club Public Relations Award

NE Governor’s Special Interclub Award
Club Bulletin Award
NE District Interclub Red Division - 2nd Place

Thanks to all of the members of the Kiwanis Club of Colebrook who worked so hard to make this possible.

Moose Festival Weekend

Colebrook Kiwanis were a busy crew this weekend working at several sites of the 20th Annual Moose Festival. Events are held in Colebrook, Canaan, Pittsburg and Errol in both New Hampshire and Vermont. The busy Kiwanians were working the Food Booth in Colebrook Friday evening, serving both breakfast and lunch throughout the day in Canaan, and served a wonderful BBQ Chicken dinner to 175 hungry guests and the band that played for the event. Thanks to all who worked all events and made this weekend a success!
